KEYNOTE SPEAKER
STEVEN JACOBO
Para-Olympian

Father of two amazing little boys (Braedyn and Taiden), Nevada resident Steven Jacobo had an unfortunate snowboarding accident that left him with an incomplete spinal cord injury at the T9-10 level. After spending a month at Renown Medical Center, Steven was transferred to Ranchos Los Amigos in Downey, CA. Since his injury Steven been focused on therapy and lifting weights to get stronger everyday. He has worked effortlessly to become a member of the USA Para-Bobsleigh team, and after reaching one podium during the World Cup season, Steven is now ranked 10th in the world.
